8. IRA Beneficiary/Successor Beneficiary Designation

NOT Applicable to IRAs for minors.

- If your account contains community property and you do not designate your spouse as your primary beneficiary for at least 50% of the value of your account, you may want to consult with your attorney or tax advisor to determine the impact of community property laws on your beneficiary designations.
- If more than one beneficiary is named and no share percentages are indicated, payment shall be made to your primary beneficiary(ies) who survives you in equal shares. If a percentage is indicated and a primary beneficiary(ies) does not survive you, unless you have checked the per stirpes box, the percentage of that beneficiary's(ies)' designated shares shall be divided equally among the surviving primary beneficiary(ies). If there is no primary beneficiary living at the time of your death, payment shall be made to your contingent beneficiary(ies). Payment to your contingent beneficiaries will be made according to the rules of succession described for primary beneficiary(ies).

- If you have elected to convert a Traditional, Rollover, SEP or SIMPLE IRA, other than a Premiere Select IRA, to a Premiere Select Roth IRA, your beneficiary designation applies to both the Premiere Select IRA established to facilitate the conversion and the Premiere Select Roth IRA. Payment to any beneficiary(ies) of the Premiere Select IRA established to facilitate a conversion will be made according to the rules of succession as described above.
- Upon transfer of assets to multiple beneficiaries, all residual income paid to your IRA and any fractional shares that cannot be divided equally among the beneficiaries will be systematically allocated to the beneficiary receiving the largest share proportion of the IRA assets. If the IRA is transferred evenly, or at different intervals, the income and/or fractional shares will be systematically allocated to the last beneficiary paid.

- To change your beneficiary designation in the future, you must complete a Premiere Select IRA Beneficiary Designation form, which can be obtained from your investment representative.
- If you are establishing this Premiere Select IRA for your Managed Account, any beneficiary designation you make below will apply to all IRAs indicated on the Premiere Select IRA Addendum for Managed Accounts.
- Before making a per stirpes designation, consult with an estate-planning attorney. By checking the per stirpes box, you are agreeing that if the specified beneficiary(ies) predeceases you, his or her share of the account will pass through to his or her descendents. Per stirpes will be construed and defined according to the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in force at the time of death of the depositor.
